Pleapocket was a close second choice to Candelabra in the Brookwood Handicap, and carried a great deal of money. Hamilton was first away on Pickpocket, Doggett setting sail on Candelabra, and Pickpocket dropping into the rack behind the leader in the first furlong. An opening came at the end of the first quarter, through which Pickpocket might have been sent to join Candelabra, but Hamilton sent the horse around on the outside. losing ground and taking the position of rear guard, which place he held to the finish. Candelabra was never headed, and won in a gallop by three lengths from Leonawell. The

William Lakeland's filly Crotchet and James McLaughlin's colt Key West were the top selections in the opening dash of one mise, P. J. Dwyer & Son's mare Reclare having backers as third choice at 6 to 1 against. Midgley sent Crotchet past Requefort in the swirl around the first turn, and held the van handly to the finish, with Major Daly, Silver Prince, and Joe

It getting third place by a neck from Joe Carter.

The plungers tossed a lot of money on Dagonet to win the second race, a run of one mile and half a furlong, for three-year-olds, with selling allowances. Danonet's price went from even money at the opening to 10 to 7 on. Doggett sent Dagonet at the head of the field from flagfall, and led handily up to the last few yards. The backers of Dagonet felt sure of their money until they saw Doggett lock over his right shoulder at the finish, while Clayton was urging Dolly McCone alongside, at the inner rail, Dolly shatching the race by a short head from Dagonet. It cost Dolly's owners $500 above the seiling price of $1,000 to retain the filly.

Another surprise came in the third race, a handicap for all ages, at three-quarters of a mile, in which Strathmenth was a hot favorite at 5 to 3 on. Foxhall Keene's filly White lose, ridden by Midgley, at the long odds of 10 to 1, was sent away with a flying start. Alcalde headed the field in pursuit for three furiongs, when Tormentor took up the chase for the next three furiongs, Strathmenth in the fighting finish. But the less the could do was to come second, at White Rose's neck.

The talent were worsted in the fifth race, a spin of five furiongs for non-winning two-year-olds at the meeting. Maid Marian was the tip and was played down from 25 to 1, to 61 to 5 against. Maid Marian passed Pansy, the leader, at a juriong and ran like a safe winner at the head of the field until the issue came at the finish, when the Maid went inside, and Midgley sent Uncle Jim in close to the rail, beating Maid Marian by a neck, Chattanoga getting third place.

Walcott was the cinch in the last race at 5 to 3 on. Hoey having the second call at 13 to 5 against, with long odds against the others. Walcott took the lead on the backstretch, and finished a handy winner by a length and a half from Lallah, a 30 to 1 chance. Hoey came in a boor third. Ormie, and Ed Leonard, with Dunjar Van close up. In the two-year-old race, First Ward easily beat Lokout and Hawthorne in fast time. In the fifth race two horses were disqualified, My Queen came in second, but the rider of Duke of Milpitas claimed that Tom Sloan nearly forced him over the fence, and as it was evident that he had done so. My Queen was disqualified and Gendarm got the place. Borealis came in fourth, but Griffin, who rode Centella, claimed that Borealis had fouled him on the back stretch. This was also allowed, and Cleopatra, who finished fifth, got third place. Three favorites and a second choice won.

> SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.-Two thousand persons gathered at the California Athletic Club rooms last night to witness a fight between the feather-weight Sol Smith of Los Angeles and George Siddops of New York. The battle was for a purse of $2,250, of which $250 went to the loser. Both lads appeared in fine condition, and it was a slugging contest from start to finish. Smith was looked upon as start to finish. Smith was looked upon as being a phenomenon, and his supporters calculated that he would win in short order. Although doing the most of the fighting and severely punishing the New Yorker, he was unable to keep him from responding to the call of time, and at the end of the fifty-sixth round the referse stopped the fight and reserved his decision. The coolness and dexterity of Siddons were the only things that saved him from defeat.

For the first ten rounds Smith did all the leading, and inflicted terrible punishment on Siddons's body. The latter's objective point seemed to be the face, and while he got in a number of blows they did not seem to have the desired effect. In thetwelfth round Smith rushed and landed his right with terrible force twice on the ribs. He got Siddons in a corner and sover-ity punished him. Upon escaping Siddons surprised Smith with a hard left on the jaw and repeated it a moment later. Smith reaching his opponent's sore ribs with a left wite. Both lads went to their corners olowing.

From the twelfth to the sixteenth round Sid-swing. Both lads went to their corners olowing.

From the twelfth to the sixteenth round Siddons opened hostilities, and landed a number of blews on the face of his opponent. Smith, however, retalisted on the body, and his hits seemed to tell every time. Still, Siddons obeyed the cail of time promptly.

From the close of the sixteenth round until the end of the thirty-third very little hard fighting was done, as both lads appeared to be quite tired. Smith continued to play for the body and Siddons for the head.

In the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth rounds the fighting was severe; Smith had decidedly the test of it, and in the thirty-fifth round Siddons returned to his corner somewhat dazed. Smith continued to rush in the thirty-seventh round, nearly knocking Siddons through the ropes. In the forty-fourth round Smith rushed Siddons to the ropes and landed several times, but his blows lacked strength. From this time on to the close of the struggle the lads fought warrly, and but few severa blows were delivered.

Boston, Sept. 30.-The meeting at Mystic Park had a rather tame ending to-day. The winners of the Futurity Stake for three-yearolds and that for foels of 1889 so far outclassed the fields that it was a mere exercise jog for them. The talent had a facer in the stake for horses eligible to the 2:25 class. April 15. C. J. Hamlin's Wardwell was not allowed to start, through some informality in making the entry. Although she could hardly walk when brought to the fourth heat, and got away badly, the filly warmed when at work, and from last place cut down the field one by one, winning a splendid heat by a length in 2:19%, six seconds better than her record.

Georg, with Hal Pointer, made an ineffectual effort to beat his record. Mystic track is a very poor one for pacers. The footing is loose and gravelly all up the backstretch. Added to this a strong wind blew up the stretch, and under these conditions Hal's mile in 2:07%, last quarter in 0:31%, is a great one, and is the fastest harness mile at Mystic since Jay Eye See wont in 2:11%.

SUNOL TO THY FOR A NEW RECORD. Mr. Bonner Says the Conditions of His

Mr. Robert Bonner was seen by a Sun reporter last evening at his home, 8 East Fiftysixth street. Mr. Bonner had just returned from Meadville. Pa., where he had been visiting Sunol and having a talk with Driver Marvin. When asked what he thought of Nancy Hanks's performance in trotting a mile in 2:04 on a regulation track, he said: It was a great performance, and she is a truly wonderful mare." Continuing, he said that Budd Doble, her driver, had telegraphed him from Terre Haute informing him of the fact, and that he had sent him the following reply:

contributed to the making of a really wonderful performance.

When asked if there was any truth in the report that Budd Doble had claimed $5,000 for beating 2:05, he said: "No one but a secondirel or a fool would make such a statement as that. Of course he did not claim it, nor would any fair-minded man. My offer was made in good faith at the time of my correspondence with Gen. Tracy. The offer that I made was that no horse could trot within two years on any of the regulation grand circuits tracks, which includes Springfield. Hartford, Cleveland, and Buffalo, in 2 minutes 5, seconds. Since that time the bicycle sulky has been invented, but at the time my offer was made the old style sulky was in use, and, of course, I meant the record should be made under precisely similar conditions. As yet these conditions have not been fulfilled."

When asked about Sunol he said. "She has been sick, but is all right now. She will start to-day along with Orion. J. Malcolm Fortee's string, for the South. Down there she will try for the world's record on the Lexington. Nashville, and Columbia, Tenn., tracks. Orion will be sent for the three-year-cld record, and if all goes well some of the records should drop. "Marvin has a neumatic sulky which Sunol will use. She was tried to it yesterday for the

She was tried to it yesterday for the first time and it seemed to suit her admirably. The Bidwell Cycle Company are building one for me which they claim is an improvement on any now in use. If I find after testing it, that it is what they claim. I will ship it to Mar-yin for Sunol's use. It will have either 36 or

The free for all resulted in the fastest six-heat contest ever trotted, and the 2:14 class, which took four, quite eclipsed this in point of speed. The average for the open class is a little over 2:12%, while the event in which Belle Vara stepped a mile in 2:08% and Walter E. proved the stayer was trotted at the rate of 2:11%, a clip that one year ago had never been made in a trotting These marvellous miles were preceded by the 2:20 pace, left from yesterday. which Flowing Tide ended quickly, and the 2:18 trot, when Reina came out in great form first, in 2:13%, is a new record for the black mare, who is owned by Gov. W. R. Merriam of Minnesota. Clara D. carried her along for two heats and Erminie forced the pace in the third. ber of Doble's stable.

The free for all followed, and of the four that scored up in this, Little Albert had the call in the betting. He was unsteady for two heats. Ryland T. getting the first in 2:11% and losing the second to Charleston in 2:12% by a break in the first turn. Jack was the contending horse in these as well as the next three heats, but his efforts were of no svall, though the famous gray trotted the best race of his life. Little Albert best race of his life. Little Albert kept level in the third heat, closing on Jack from the head of the stretch, and beating him by an open length in 2:12. The stout chestnut was not headed in the fourth heat. Jack again at his wheel, and then it was any odds on the Californian. Ryland T. was very much in it vet, however, and the fifth heat was one of the best ever trotted. Jack took the pole from Albert at the first turn and led to the third quarter. Here the favorite closed on the Chicago flyer and had the race in hand when Ryland T. rushed up from third place, and with a terrific spurt had a clear lead at the distance. Kelly whipped Little Albert, but to no purpose, and Jack was second as Ryland T. flew past the wire in 2:114, with three left to decide the issue. Ryland T. proved the freshest, though he made a break in the second quarter. But Little Albert and Charleston were very weary, and the erratic bay gelding disposed of them in 2:144. The last hope of the Salisbury stable for the

and the erratic bay geiding disposed of them in 2:14%.

The last hope of the Salisbury stable for the meeting was Mattie H. in the 2:14 class, but she, too, failed and got no part of the money. In the pools she sold at $50 to $35 over the field. Belie Vara second choice. Waiter E. had the pole for the first heat, and Belie Vara was in third place. Mattie H. made a rush for the lead, and went lapped on Waiter E. to the half, but could not get past the gelding. He went to the first quarter in 32% seconds, and the half in 1:04%. Belie Vara was five lengths behind, but Doble gave the black mare her head in the third quarter and she had the gap about closed at the head of the stretch, Waiter E. trotting from the half to the three-quarters in 31% seconds; so that Belie Vara must have gone close to a two-minute clip. Down the short bit of stretch the black mare kept up the flight, and at the distance Waiter E. could stand no longer. When he jumped off his stride. Dottle let up on Belie Vara a triffe, but she was still full of speed, and passed the wire with a record of 2:08%. This has only once been beaten in a race, Martha Wilkes making a heat in 2:08% yesterday, just in time to retain the championship, and no five-year-old ever trotted so fast in a contest.

The struggie was not over, and Belie Vara had to suffer defeat after all, as Waiter E. stepped off three more miles that were too much for the young mare after her previous effort. In the third heat the gelding scored a new mark of 2:11%, Belie Vara forcing him out after a break.

Two heats in the 2:17 pace were all that the remaining dayight admitted of, the favorita. Nuthurst, being unable to get either. Kissell's Dallas, after getting a record of 2:12%, became demoralized in the second heat and was shut out. Nellie B. outfooted Nuthurst in 2:14%, a new mark for the brown mare.

Among the time records this afternoon, Czar, these was sold to the second heat and was shut out. Nellie B. outfooted Suthurst in 2:14%, a new mark for the brown mare.

LIVELY WORK AT MINEOLA. Jockeys Make a Fighting Ground of th

An exciting encounter occurred between two jockeys in the final heat of the running race which closed the fall meeting of the Queens County Agricultural Society on the Mineola Fair grounds yesterday afternoon. The first heat of this race was won by John Duryea's s. m. Ballad, closely pressed by J. R. Wood's b. g. Mineral. Their positions were the same when they came down the stretch on the second heat. Harry Hewitt, who rode Mineral, attempted to get by Ballad on the fence side of the track, but Jockey William Hogan crowded his horse close to the rai and kept Mineral back. They finished half a far as Jocky Hewitt was concerned. He over took Jockey Hogan, and raising his whip lashed Hogan around the track until the latter drew his whip and retaliated. They made a complete circuit of the track again, during

MISS ROOSEVELT WINS THE SINGLES. Brilliant Ending of the States Island Ten-nis Tou-nament.

The open lawn tennis tournament of the Staten Island Ladies' Club was brought to a brilliant conel sion yesterday afternoon on the courts of the Staten Island Crioket Club. The final matches in all three events were reached and all played off with the exception of the ladies' doubles, which was started but inte rupted by darkness after two sets had been played.

morning at 10 o'clock.

The most brilliant play of the day was in the final round of the ladies' singles, in which Miss E. C. Rossevelt, ex-champion of America, defeated Miss Burdette of Englewood, after a close and exciting match of fou order, and a match between either of these ladies and Miss Cabill would have been very interesting, as many believe she would have been beaten. Neither Miss believe she would have been beaten. Neither Miss Roosevelt nor Miss Burdette played at Philadelphia is the spring, when Miss Cabill won the championship. In the mixed doubles Mrs. madgely and M.F. Good, in the mixed doubles Mrs. madgely and M.F.
